DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

I. Claims 1-3, 9-11 and 4, drawn to an electrode for a Li-based electrochemical energy storage device comprising::

(a) at least one transition metal

(b) binder.

(c) conductive additive

II. Claims 5 and 6, drawn to an electrode for a Li-based electrochemical energy storage device comprising::

(a) a transition metal in the form of metal clusters

(b) LiX-M composite.

(c) LiX dispersed at an atomic scale or at a nanometer scale

Art Unit: 1795

III. Claims 7 and 8, drawn to a lithium based electrochemical storage device comprising::

(a) a positive and negative electrode

(b) electrolyte.

(c) lithium salt

(d) anhydrous solvent

(e) LiX-M composite.

In this case as admitted in the subject matter of the present claims the electrochemical storage device of group III and I do not require transition metal in for of metal clusters and LIX dispersed in at atomic scale or at a nanometer scale. Claims 1-3, 9-11 and 4 are generic.

If Group I is elected an election of species is to be made for binder selected from one of the following: PVDF, PTFE, PAN and ETDM. Furthermore, an election of species is to be made for the conductive additive selected from one of the following: carbon black, graphie, metal powder and metal fibers. Furthermore, an election of species is to be made for a transition metal chosen from Ti, V, Cr, Ni, Mn, Fe, Co and Cu. The species are independent or distinct because each requires a separate search and are not obvious over one another.

The species are independent or distinct because as disclosed the different species have mutually exclusive characteristics for each identified species. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

There is an examination and search burden for these patentably distinct species due to their mutually exclusive characteristics. The species require a different field of search (e.g., searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries); and/or the prior art applicable to one species would not likely be applicable to another species; and/or the species are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Art Unit: 1795

The election of the species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the election of species requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected species.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the species unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other species.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Ben Lewis whose telephone number is 571-272-6481. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30am - 5:30pm.
